Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

March 24, 2013

Message from Our Deacon . . .

~ Deacon Rick Morales

In the invitation to full participation given by the priest at the beginning of Mass today we hear the words:

"Today we gather to herald with the whole Church the beginning of the celebration of our Lord's Paschal Mystery, that is to say, of His Passion and Resurrection."

I invite you to enter into this Mystery more deeply than you ever have before. I would suggest that beginning with this Commemoration of Christ's entrance into Jerusalem that you will live the events that will unfold this week as though they were happening for the first time, right here, right now.

If you haven't already planned on attending and celebrating this Holy Week in its entirety, it's not too late to change your plans, adjust your schedule and live within the solemnity of the events that we will be celebrating this week.

As you enter into Jerusalem with Jesus today, plan on staying for the entire week, experience Jesus with Lazarus and Mary and the betrayal of Jesus by Judas that take place in the early part of the week. As we begin the Easter Triduum on Holy Thursday, enter into the Upper Room and attend the first Mass, be present when Christ institutes the Eucharist and the priesthood that remain with us until the end of time. Keep vigil with Jesus after His arrest on Thursday night in order to enter more deeply into the depth of His love for you. Live Good Friday, the day of Fast and Abstinence with the disciples in Jerusalem. Be present at the trial, walk with Jesus as He carries the cross in atonement for your sins and mine. Be present when He gives us His mother and gives up His Spirit. Stay with our Blessed Mother Mary through the dark night after the death of her Son and spend the day with her on Saturday in hopes that you may be of some assistance and consolation to her as she spends the day without the presence of her Divine Son. Enter into the Holy Night of the Passover of Christ from death to life at the Easter Vigil.

Jesus really came that we might have life. As deeply as you desire to enter into His life He will enter into yours. He is never outdone in generosity.

May the fruit of this Lenten Season and Holy Week be more bountiful for each of us than they have ever been before...+

Palm Sunday commemorates the triumphal entrance of Christ into Jerusalem (Mt. 21: 1-9), when palm branches were placed in His path, before His arrest on Holy Thursday and His Crucifixion on Good Friday. It thus marks the beginning of Holy Week, the final week of Lent, and the week in which Christians celebrate the mystery of their salvation through Christ's Death and Resurrection on Easter Sunday.

Catholic Trivia

What color of vestment do priests wear on Palm Sunday?

A. Green B. White C. Red D. Purple

The answer is C. Red symbolizes the shedding of blood & is therefore used on Palm Sunday (when Christ entered Jerusalem to prepare for His death), Good Friday, any other commemoration of the Lord's Passion. Red also signifies the burning fire of God's love. For this reason, red vestments are worn on Pentecost & during Confirmation.

DO YOU REALLY "BELIEVE?"

You say you "believe" every Sunday as you recite the Creed. But do you know what you're saying you "believe" in? Do the truths of the faith—listed in the Creed—really permeate your life? Learn how these ancient truths contain the promise of peace, joy and happiness for our lives.

Pillar I: The Creed is a 12-Part program that will launch you on an amazing journey through the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Don't miss this opportunity to take part in a compelling and inspiring learning experience that is sure to draw you closer to Christ through a deeper understanding of the teachings of His Church.

Join us for Pillar I: The Creed at Divine Mercy Catholic Church. Participants may choose between two sessions:

1. Every Monday at 7:30 pm in the Narthex April 1st to July 1st OR
2. Every Wednesday at 10:00 am in the Narthex April 3rd to July 3rd

Registration forms will be available after all the Sunday Masses March 10, 17 and 24 or in the Parish Office during office hours – Monday to Friday from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. For questions or if you require further assistance, please call (916) 256-3134.

Please join the Angels of Mercy Ministry in feeding the poor by donating non-perishable food items during this Lenten season. Please place your donations in designated containers in the Narthex. We anticipate beginning our first food distribution by the end of April and would welcome more volunteers. If you would like to join our ministry and help us provide the basic needs of the poor, join us every 3rd Thursday of each month at 7:00 pm in the Narthex.

Divine Mercy Devotion Ministry

~ DIARY OF ST. FAUSTINA ~

The Diary of St. Faustina is the second most important book in the world, after the Bible. It is a record of the inspiring life of St. Faustina, as she experienced the profound supernatural events that shaped her entire life. It reveals the supremely holy and wise personality of the author, not so much in what she said about herself, but in her honest reaction to the ordinary and divine moments of her everyday life. But the true purpose of the Diary was to document the instructions of Jesus as to how He desired the new devotion to His Divine Mercy to be formed. It is this point that makes it the second most important book in the world, because it contains the actual words of Jesus spoken to St. Faustina regarding His Mercy and the new devotion to His Divine Mercy, which He willed to be established in His Church.

There have been many saints such as Padre Pio, St. Leopold Mandic, St. John Vianney and many others who have had the extraordinary gifts of the Holy Spirit like reading souls and making prophecies, and to whom Jesus appeared and guided them. The only other saint who had an experience similar to St. Faustina was St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, to whom Jesus spoke to her and gave her instructions about a new devotion to His love which became known as the Sacred Heart Devotion. But even in the Sacred Heart Devotion, Jesus did not instruct her to directly write down His words and instructions. In fact, He requested that a priest, Fr. Jean Croiset, be the person to write the book, which would become the main text for the Sacred Heart Devotion. It was only St. Faustina to whom Jesus gave explicit instructions to write His words regarding the new devotion He wished to establish in the world. This is a further reason why the Diary of St. Faustina is so special. It is because it is absolutely unique in the history of the Catholic Church.

Holy Thursday

Triduum

The summit of the Liturgical Year is the Paschal/ Easter Triduum - from the evening of Holy Thursday to the evening of Easter Sunday. Though chronologically three days, they are liturgically one day unfolding for us the unity of Christ's Paschal Mystery. The single celebration of the Triduum marks the end of the Lenten season, and leads to the Mass of the Resurrection of the Lord at the Easter Vigil. The liturgical services that take place during the Triduum are:

- ◆ Mass of the Lord's Supper
- ◆ Good Friday of the Lord's Passion
- ◆ Mass of the Resurrection of the Lord
